IN THE BASEBALL WORLD.

EWING UNABLE TO DISCUSS MATTERS WITH FREEDMAN.

Will Try Again To-day, and Says That Under Certain Conditions the New Yorks Will Beat Out Four Teams-Brooklyns Ready to Go South-Gossip. Although he went down to see Freedman yesterday, Manager Ewing of the New Yorks was unable to make any definite statement last night regarding his plans for the coming season. Ewing spent a good part of the day at Freedman's office waiting for an interview, and when he finally secured an audience he could not talk baseball, he said, because of interruptions. Ewing discussed baseball in a ensible way last night. He said in part:

"I have certain players in view, and if I can get them I will predict that the New Yorks will beat out four clubs, Cincinnati, Chicago, Pittsburg and St. Louis. The Cincinnatis and Chicagos are the weakest teams in the League, as it is now constituted. I do not look for a spiurge from the Pittsburgs because of conflicting elements, and I do not believe St. Louis will land McGraw and Robinson. It would be foolish for me to say that the New Yorks will win the championship, because everybody knows that the Brooklyns. Bostons and Philadelphias are powerful teams. But just let me haul in some men I know of, and the New Yorks will be anything but tail enders. No. I cannot give the names of the men I have in mind, for two reasons. I have not talked of them to President Freedman in the first place, and even if I had I would not give their names, because the prices for their services would immediately take a jump. Will Rusie be signed? That is more than I know. The matter rests entirely between President Freedman and the pitcher. I do not know whether Amos is in shape or not as I haven't seen or heard from him for some

"Is it true that you intend to play Seymour in the outfield?" asked the reporter.

"By no means," was the reply. "Seymour is the best pitcher in the country and that fact is admitted, I believe, by every player who has faced him. He lacks control, perhaps, but that will work off if he gets plenty of work. As soon as the season opens I will take him in hand myself and show him something about control. Doheny and Carrick are also good pitchers, but we will need some more. When we get that outfleld patched up, you'll see a pretty fair ball team, I reckon. I intend to see Mr. Freedman again to-morrow morning and will probably be better posted."

What do you think of the umpire staff?" "It's a pretty good one," was the reply, "but Lynch ought to be there. He is the best umpire in the business and without him the game will suffer. I am very glad to see Hurst back.

will suffer. I am very glad to see Hurst back, for he's a most competent official. O'Day, however, should not have been reappointed. He is on record as saying that he would not make a certain ruling last year because he was atraid of being mobbed. An umpire who lacks moral and physical courage is of no account. Frank Dwyer was overlooked, it seems, which was a big mistake.

Ewing does not regard the new home plate with favor. He says that no matter what shape it may be it will avail nothing in the way of reform as after two or three innings of a game have been played the plate is usually covered with gravel so that the bitcher cannot see it. He also believes the balk rule is ineffective because few umpires know what a balk is. Regarding the doing away with the double umpire system Ewing says a good move was made. "One good umpire." said Buck. "is better than two incombetents. Most of the kicking last year was due to base decisions by the assistant umpires. Then, too, the umpfres differed among themselves as to rulings and the players got onto them. I am a firm believer in clean baseball but competent umpiring is absolutely necessary."

While Ewing knows that the New Yorks have no chance for the pennant this year. Freedman

While Ewing knows that the New Yorks have no chance for the pennant this year. Freedman is of a different opinion. He confidently believes that the New Yorks as they stand are the best team in the League and explains their poor showing of last season with the statement that they would not play ball for Fred Hoey.

Manager Hanlon has things well under way for the trip of the champion brooklyns to becoutely necessary." While Ewing knows that the New Yorks have Manager Hanlon has things well under way for the trip of the champlon brooklyns to Augusta on March 20. He left for the South yesterday to make final arriangements. The Bondman and Nibrath, 108. Emma Smith, 108. Emma S and by hard work this spring he may win his way back to a regular place among the champions. Hanlon has fixed his mind on McGinnity, McJames, Hughes, Kitson and Dunn for the pitching corps. He will try out Howell, Kennedy and the other twirlers with the idea of adding at least two more men to the list. Whether De Montreville will play shortstop or third base and Dahlen vice versa has not been decided, but at all events little Casey, who played third base last year, will not be allowed to go. Sheckard will surely play centre field instead of Jones and the other warhorses, Jennings, Daly, Kelley and Keeler, will a'l be found in their old places. Good judges sa, the Brooklyn team this season will be one of the most powerful combinations in the history of the League. On paper it looks to be invincible.

The positive statement made by McGraw and Robinson that they will not play ball in St. Louis, although they have been sold outright by the Brooklyn club to Frank De Hass Robinson, is not unexpected. It, however, Robison brings the machinery of the national agreement into play, these two players will either be compelled to play ball in St. Louis or retire from the diamond. Nobody believes for a moment that McGraw would quit, but Robinson, who is a veteran, might do so in order to take personal charge of the private venture he and McGraw are conducting in Baltimore. Hanlon, Ven der Horst and Robison had another long pow wow in the Monumental City, but they could not reach the ears of McGraw and his lat partner, who sent a note to the magnates saying that it was useless to discuss the deal further. The matter will probably be fixed up, however, when certain conditions have been named. Freedman said again vesterday that he would not take McGraw or any of the ex-Ealtimore players, no matter who offered them to him.

Hart of Chicago announced yesterday that Hart of Chicago announced vesterday that the proposed American Association to be controlled by the National League will probably be a go, as Ban Johnson, President of the American League, still insists upon putting another club into Chicago. Robison sent out a statement, from Baltimore, too, that the Circuit Committee will soon send a recommendation in this line to the National League to be acted upon. P. T. Fowers, President of the Eastern League, and William Barnie, who wants to run the new Baltimores in that circuit, will leave for Baltimore this morning to see what the situation there looks like.

The Philadelphia club made an offer to the Brooklyn club yesterday for Hugh Jennings which was promptly turned down. Reach and Rogers could have had the great player last year but were not willing to pay a reasonable amount. The Quakers now intend to make a play for Sheckard, but once again the Brooklyn officials will be compelled to answer in the negative.

PRINCETON, March 12.-Pitcher Willis of the Boston team arrived in Princeton to-day, and began training in preparation for the League baseball season. He has been persuaded to take his preliminary exercise here through the influence of Clarke, also of the Boston nine, who has charge of the 'Varsity candidate and incidentally he will aid in coaching the men. All the players had an opportunity to face the professional pitcher in batting practice this afternoon. At first they took to his curves like a duck to water until he began to send over the fast ones, when he made the college veterans look like preparatory school boys. Each man was taken in hand and his faults were foreibly pointed out. Coach Clarke is planning to let the men have practice against the Boston pitcher every day, and by this pian of development he expects to turn out one of the strongest aggregations of college batsmen seen on the diamond in many a year Arthur Hillebrand, Captain of the nine, has been confined to his room for the past two days with aff attack of malaria. The Tigers' Captain has been subject to this complaint for the last year, and his condition has been a constant source of worry to the trainer and coachers. Kafer, Captain of the nine last year, has the men under his care, and he will oversee the work until Hillebrand is able to resume his duties. influence of Clarke, also of the Boston nine,

HELENA, March 12 .- Now that a stock company has been formed here with a paid-up capital of $5,000 to meet any possible deficiency in gate receipts, a new baseball league-the Rocky Mountain-will be launched this season. It will be composed of four cities; Salt Lake, Ogden, Butte and Helena, and will operate under the national agreement. A ninety-six game season is contemplated, the opening one to be played at the Utah cities about May 25. What has heretolore proved the cause of failure with coast and intermountain leagues, excessive railroad fares, has been eliminated in the present arrangement. The veteran Ted Sullivan will be manager of the Sait Lake team. Ed Gimlin the Ogden and W. H. Lucas the Butte. The Helena manager has not been selected. President Philips of Helena has signed Catcher Zearross, formerly of New York, and Third Baseman Marshall, formerly of Cincinnati, and is conducting negotiations with Pitchers Maupin of the 18 St. Louis team, and Andrews of the Pacific League of 188. Sait Lake and Ogden are already organized. A highly successful season is looked for.

Latest Baseball Rumor from Washington WASHINGTON, March 12 .- Announcement is made from a trustworthy source to-night that the story of the Balt'more-St. Louis trans'er of McGraw and Robinson for $15,000 is only half true. McGraw is to go to St. Louis as stated, but Robinson is to remain in Baltimore and manage the new Association team to be organized there. Put Tebeau and Jack O'Con-nor are to go from St. Louis to Cleveland and undertake the formation of an Association team there. Slagle of the Washington team is to go to New York.

GOLF The Dates Wanted for the Amateur and Women's Championships.

While the Executive Committee of the U. S G. A. has not officially sanctioned the dates, it is understood that the Garden City Golf City has asked for the last week in June for the amateur championship and that the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club has asked for the last week in August for the women's champtonship. Should the request be granted the men's championship will begin on Monday, June 25, and the women's on Tuesday, Aug. 28, unless the number to qualify in the latter event should be raised from sixteen to thirty-two, when the competition would have to be started a day earlier. The dates named to be started a day earlier. The dates named for the men's event are a week earlier than last year, which is considered an advantage, for the reason that it avoids all conflict with the many club competitions that are held on independence Day. The women's championship of 1847 was held on Aug. 24-26, and in 1894, '98 and '98 the dries selected fell in October. The Shinnecock Hills course will be at its best on the dates chosen, and as the Southampton season will then be at its height, there is little doubt but that the event will attract he largest entry in its history. The annual open tournament for men at the Shinnecock Hills toolf Club will begin on Monday, July 23, and continue throughout the week.

Players from the other M. G. A. clubs are always flocking to the Garden City links whenever they can obtain a card from a member of the home club. The course is in very fine order and as the holes are on the corners of the regular greens there is little excuse for weak putting. Among the visitors on Sunday were Findlay S. Douglas, A. L. Norris, Walter J. Travis, J. M. Stillman, Jr., and H. M. Harriman, Both Douglas and Travis are now playing a very good game, quite up to their best form.

PALM BEACH, March 12.—H. M. Forrest of the Philadelphia Country Club won the Qualification Cup here to-day, in the annual golf tournament, by seoring 88 and a brilliant 79, making a total of 197 over thirty-six holes. He has been playing a remarkable game during the past week, having made eighteen holes in 80 on last Friday, which broke the amateur record of the links by two strokes. This was reduced one stroke by him to-lay. There were fifty-six entries in the tournament, among them being many of the best players in the country. The youngest player was Harris Fenn, the fourteen-year-old son of A. li. Fenn, who has done some splendid work this winter. As the shades of night fell sooner than was welcome, two of the best players were obliged toabandon the game. Harry Suy-lam of New York would probably have entered the first division only for this and Laroque the second division. To-morrow the first and second sixteen will enter match play for the Poinciana, Paim Beach and Consolation cups. The scores to-day follow:

Head Coach Dr. E. F. Gallaudet of the Yale

Head Coach Dr. E. F. Gallaudet of the Yale Rowing Association made a remarkable statement to a crowd of workingmen he addressed on Sunday evening at the Yale mission hall. Gallaudet explained the methods of training at Yale and afterward drew a religious lesson from what he had said. The speaker remarked that rowing was the hardest task a man could do, and that in the exercise every muscle was taxed. To give his hearers an idea of how much work there is in rowing, he pointed out that in an afternoon's practice a regular Yale crew man would lose from one and a quarret to two pounds of flesh. He further said that the 'Varsity crew in 1891 lost eighty pounds in weight from the morning of the race with Harvard until after it was over, an average loss of ten pounds for each man.

CAMBRIDGE, March 13.-The athletic author ties of Harvard have decided to begin the building at once of the university boathouse which was destroyed by fire. At present the house is merely a heap of charred ruins, which will have to be cleared away before the work can be begun. It has been decided to build the house of wood, owing to the failure of the $15,000 extra offered by the Harvard Club of New York city to insure the erection of a brick structure to materialize. It is understood that $8,000 has been subscribed toward the sum, but as the first gift of the club will be ample to build the structure according to the original plans this will not be called upon. The house will be erected on the same general lines as that destroyed by the fire, with the exception that it will not be so high. It is proposed to have the building ready for occupancy by the next fall rowing season. The two launches, one to take the place of the burned Frenk Thompson and the other for the use of proposed to have the bunding ready proceed-pancy by the next fall rowing season. The two launches, one to take the place of the burned Frank Thompson and the other for the use of the Weld Poat Club, will be ready for use within a short time, the first in about two weeks and the other about a week later.

L. D. Huntington, at New Rochelle, has almost completed a toat that is to be sent to Southampton, England, this spring and be Southamoton. England, this spring and be raced against the small boats in the Solant. The new yacht will race in the 30-linear rating class. Her general dimensions are about 30 feet on the waterline and 50 feet over all. It is rumored that the vachtsman who is to race the boat on the other side is Clarke Miller of New Rochelle, who has been sailing small boats on the sound for some years. The new boat is very much like the Palm, Keneu, Paprika and others built by Huntington, but Instead of having a centreboard is fitted with a fin. The hull is flat bottomed and very shoal draft. She will be tried in a few days.

Harvard and Yale Will Row Four Miles

New London, March 12 -- A letter was received to-day by Frank V. Chappell, chairman of the New London Board of Trade Regatta Committee, from Julian Curtis, representing the Yale and Harvard Boat clubs. Curtis writes that the college crews had decided to row over the Thames River straightaway fourmile course as followed during the races of 1830-1835 inclusive. Last year there was a slight detour near the two-mile flag off the naval station. The course was laid out in that manner to accommodate three crews and also to follow the channel and to receive the full benefit of the tide.

It has been customary for Yale and Harvard to send representatives here several days in advance of the oarsmen to arrange for their quarters, but this has been satisfactorily dispensed with by a written agreement with the local regatta committee, which states that the arrangements of last year will hold good for the coming season. ceived to-day by Frank V. Terry McGovern Arranges Two More

Champion Terry McGovern will be kept quite busy in the near future. He has arranged two bouts in addition to the twenty-five round scrap with Eddie Santry, which is slated for April 6 at the Broadway A. C. He will nave his hands full. On next Thursday night, at Philadeiphia, he will meet Eddie Lenny for six rounds, and on March 28 he will face Tommy White at Chicago for a like number of rounds. In White and Lenny Terry will tackle two exceptionally clever lads.

SMITH AND MAHONEY DRAW

PHILADELPHIAN TREATS A BIG CROWD OF SPORTS TO A SURPRISE.

"Mysterious" Boxer Looked Upon as an Almost Sure Winner in a Twenty-five Round Bout at the Hercules - Steve Flanagan Collapses Atter a Knockout. The large crowd of sports who attended the bouts at the Hercules A. C. last night were treated to a surprise party. It was in the nature of young Mahoney of Philadelphia, who faced "Mysterious" Billy Smith for twenty-five rounds. Many thought that the visitor would prove to be easy game and the betting was about 2 to 1 against him winning and 3 to 1 that he would not last twelve rounds. Mahoney not only fooled the wiseacres, but showed that he is very clever and a dangerous proposition for any of the men in his class. He toyed with Smith in the early part of the fight, but as it progressed Smith did a lot of rushing and work, and this fact alone got him a draw Mahoney was unmarked, but Smith's countenance bore traces of many blows.

The preliminary contest, which was considered a card in itself, was between Steve Flannagan and Danny Dougherty, both of Philadelphia. They clashed at 105 pounds for fifteen rounds. In the first nine minutes of the battle nagan and Danny Dougherty, both of Philadelphia. They clashed at 105 pounds for fifteen rounds. In the first nine minutes of the battle the work on either side was even. Science was indulged in and no harm resulted. The fourth started with a huff, and they exchanged blows viciously. Flannagan after making a lead was almost floored with a right-hander on the jaw. The gong was rather welcome to him. In the fifth Flannagan received a wicked right cross on the left optic. The sixth was uneventful, but in the seventh Dougherty get careless and was knocked down. After this the mill became a question of strength, and after fighting 2 minutes and 24 seconds Flannagan was knocked out with a voiley of blows in the tenth round. While Flannagan was being attended to by his seconds he collapsed, and his head hung limp on his breast. Terry McGovern, who was seated near the ringside, offered his services to bring Flannagan to, but it was unavailing. At the solicitation of the police the unconscious boxer was carried to his dressing room. Dr. Randall who was in the crowd, was quickly summoned and after heroic work brought Flannagan around. He said that the fighter was suffering from a foul stomach and exhaustion.

Of course this unexpected ending occasioned quite a delay before the stars of the evening appeared. Smith and Mahoney were in the ring almost simultaneously. in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, March 12.-Walter Johnson, the Philadelphia negro heavy weight, stayed twenty ounds with Jim Jeffords at the Hathorne Club o-night. Jeffords had the advantages of build and ten or twelve pounds in weight, but he was not enough of a ring general to get in and fluish his man at the right time. Johnson was quick, at the right time. Johnson was quick, strong and clever at ducking, but he did not seem to have punishing powers, and there was no doubt at any time of the outcome. In the thirteenth Jeffords scored a clean knock down with a left swing on the jaw and Johnson took the full allowance. Jeffords stayed away and let the colored man come to. In the last five rounds Johnson did little but duck and clinch, making the contest rather tame. The colored man was distressed at the close and could not have gone much further.

Fitz and Roeber Are Friends Again.

Harmony now reigns between Bob Fitzsimago Roeber brought suit against the former champion for back salary, which Roeber says amounted to $875. Yesterday Fitzsimmons amounted to $875. Yesterday Fitzsimmons called on Roeber and gave him all the money that he owed him, and the two made up. To show his sincerity Fitzsimmons then engaged Roeber as a wrestling partner and trainer for his coming battle with Tom Sharkey. Roeber and Fitz had a wrestling bout yesterday afternoon in a hall on Second avenue where Roeber is working for his match with Bech Olsen of Sweden, which is to take place a week from to-morrow night. Fitz says that wrestling is a great exercise and that it keeps him in share. Roeber was one of "Lanky Bob's" chief trainers when the latter was matched to fight Jim Corbett at Carson City.

Jimmy Michael made a few thousand dollars at hicycle racing. Then he decided to become a jockey and a racehorse owner. A few days ago he arrived here and engaged apartments uptown. Yesterday the midget called at the declared that he was going into cycling exclusively this year and would try to win some of the big money that he formerly was in the habit of earning. The little Welshman said that he would hig money that he formerly was in the habit of earning. The little Welshman said that he would go to Manhattan Beach track, the scene of his greatest victories, and would make it his head quarters, training during the spring and in the summer meeting all comers at middle distance pacel races. He will be ready, he says, to engage with Elkes or any one else in a contest for twenty-five miles or at the one hour test. Michael this time was thoroughly in earnest and did not talk of dividing his attention between cycle racing and the horses, as he tried to do in 1898.

Visitors to the Sportsmen's Show at Madison Square Garden yesterday were surprised to see the dead body of the mysterious wildcat. that has caused so much commotion, hanging to the branches of a silver birch tree of the still hunters camp of the Adirondack guide section. It was shot on Saturday, after making a raid on the feathered game.

There was no water polo game on the evening programme, but the aquatic events were more numerous than ever and the trials took up so much time that the finals in one or two races were held over. Teams from the Brookline B. C. of Massachusetts and the Duquesne Country and A. C. of Pittsburg competed in the relay event. G. P. Avery, the fastest swimmer of Boston, was debarred from competing in the colors of the Brookline Club, and the first heat was easily won by the Knickerbockers. The time made by the 'Cherry Diamond' quartet was nearly six seconds faster than that made by the Duquesne swimmers, who won the second heat. Summary:

alleys were the teams of the home club and of the Delaware Club, of the upper East Side. The rival bowlers were lead by their club magnates, Judge Divver and ex-Sheriff Tom Dunn. 'hinese lanterns, shields and banners, besides lithe Dewey flag, helped to make the bowling gallery look like a ballroom, but the garest things in sight were the striped shirts and diamond-studded neckties disclosed by the players when they took off their coats at the beginning of the fray.

There was a crush of partisans of the two teams, an enthusiastic gathering of railbirds who filled the air with cigar smoke as they watched the course of the rolling balls. Leaders in the yelling and critical hoat were Congressman Riordan, Assemblyman Reardon, State Senator Ahearn, Sam Wolf, the Court Clerk (Census Enumerator Wilber and more less conspicuous political leaders. T. F. Pavne, Captain of the Divver team, who could not bowl on account of a sprained anche, led a chorus of the home followers. He said that any one of them at the word of command could give the street boundaries of any city election district.

The only regret of the home players was that the Divver Laly Bowling Club was not on hand to swell the applause as they were on Saturday night, when the Divverites beat the Patrick Keenan Association for a silver flagon on Trainor's alley, in Brooklyn, There was no room to get the girls in. The match was the second in a series of three for a silken banner to be paid for by the losers. The Divverties won the first game. The bowling ranged from the rabidly scientific to the 'poodle variety, but the average was fairly good, Judge Divver led his team, but he only rolled up 10%. Tom Dunn who rolled against him, made 175, Although he said he was no bowler, this was next to the high score in the first game.

"No bowler, eh," shouted the Divver's leader, as Dunn made one of his four-strikes. "Sure."

made 175. Although he said he was no bowler, this was next to the high score in the first game.

"No bowler, eh," shouted the Divver's leader, as Dunn made one of his four-strikes. "Sure, "is a Galway twist ye give the ball."

"Not on your life," rejoined Dunn. "It's a waggle I learned on the Lakewood golf links."

Jimmy Divver rolled an effective ball with a curve, but the slow ball slid along by Layden did the test service for the Divvers. He had five strikes and a spare in the first game.

"It's easy enough," was the comment of one of the Delawares, "to make goo! scores on ther home alleys, surrounded by admitinfrins."

"Bedad, yer a philosopher," replied his Divverite chum. "The drinks are on me."

After the second game the home team had a lead of 511 and the banner was won. But the third game was played out for the funofit. Then there was a spread served by an uptown caterer to be enjoyed upstairs and countless cold bottles of champagne to wash it down. Joseph G. Divver was the master of ceremonles here, just as during the bowling young Walter Divver, the "boy champion bowler of the club," had directed the flow of the beer and soft drinks down in the alley, Hiscryof "Gangway, there!" as he rushed the trays was as powerful as a North River captain's orders on a palace steamer. The Delawares, although beaten, returned to their wikwam with a high idea of Fourth Ward sportsmanship. While the wine was popping De Welf Hopper and several of his company sang and cracked Jokes for the bowlers. The summary of the two decisive games: games:

A GENEROUS OFFER.

George B. Wright Discovers a Cure for Lost Manhood and Sends It Free to Every Sufferer Who Will Write for It.

Gratitude is one of the noblest impulses of the human heart, and in few instances has this fine quality been so conspicuously exem-plified as in the case of George B. Wright, of

Mr. Wright is a merchant and well-known citizen of Marshall, Mich., who was permanently cured of lost manhood and nervous debility after declining health for years. He now devotes his life to helping other men who suffer as he once suffered. Mr. Wright offers to send the medical prescription that effected a cure in his case to every reader who is suffering to-day as he suffered. All who will drop him a letter asking for a copy of the prescription will receive it by return mail free of charge. The following editorial by A. N. Tally, M. D., regarding Mr. Wright's prescription for lost manhood, appeared in the December issue of the United States Health Reports, published at Washington, D. C.: We, as the highest American authority on all matters of health, sanitation and hygiene, are constantly receiving letters of inquiry about a reliable cure for lost strength in men. Therefore we have ordered an investigation to be made into the subject and our medical staff found there were many so-called cures on the market, but that many were worthless and some actually harmful. Therefore when we came upon the prescription furnished free by George B. Wright, a merchant of Marshall, Mich., we instituted a most thorough laboratory examination and found that its wonderful effleacy depended upon its being exactly compounded according to proper chemical requirements, in order to establish the proper chemical actions and reactions in the human system, and that it should especially and above all, contain each and every ingradient named in the prescription, otherwise it would be quite inactive and worthless.

Properly mixed and containing everything called for in the prescription, its effect upon the nerve centres is truly wonderful and its nerve tonic properties easily surpassed all ordinary methods of medication.

Among the benefactors of the race may be mentioned the said George B. Wright, inasmuch that he gives this grand discovery free to all who write for it.

Taken according to directions it builds un the weak and restores to full size and vigor the nerve muscles. It brings hope and cheer and lifts up the discouraged man so that he once more enjoys the beauties of nature and the pleasures of life. Failure in business and love surely falls upon him who is weakened physieally and mentally, and this sad condition is at once relieved and a new man made of him who uses this prescription.

Therefore, upon the highly favorable report of our medical staff we extend to George B. Wright's prescription for lost manhood the fuil editor al and efficial indorsement of the United States Health Reports. As certain as a wound leaves a sear, and as sure as effect follows cause, do men live to repent their foilles and indiscretions in weakness and suffering. The tortured sufferer may bear no tell-tale marks of ruin upon his face to betray his lost manhood. He goes to his grave a human wreck and never tells of his sufferings for fear of shame. Such mental anguish at times drives him to the verge of desperation, and he is easy prey for those vultures in human form-quack doctors-who held out alluring hopes of cure only to disappoint, and after robbing him of his money, plunge him into absolute despair. No one can appreciate these horrors of lost manhood except he who has suffered them. No one can help such sufferers except he who knows a cure and has himself been restored to full manhood. A notable cure of lost manhood in an extreme case was effected in the person of George B. Wright, a music dealer and well-Richardson, known citizen of Marshall, Mich. Mr. Wright for years suffered the agony of lost vita He saw his physical power go from him as the result of insidious disease, until he was reduced to a condition of senility, and the best doctors in the country gave him up to die. Like many others, he tried the various remedies offered by specialists for the treatment of weaknesses peculiar to men, and it was this experience that drove him to a little study and research for his own benefit. He asserts that his ten years' suffering, both

He asserts that his ten years' suffering, both mentally and physically, was turned to unbounded joy in a single night through a rare combination of medicines that literally made him young again. It is the prescription of this discovery that his enthusiasm leads him to offer free to any man, young or old, who feels that his animation or the three of ambition has left him and needs something that will brace him up and enable him to be prepared for any undertaking which may present itself.

There is no question but what in his individual case the results were just as described, and it seems quite probable that any man who be leves himself to be weak may profit by sending for this free prescription. Many people wonder how he can afford to send this prescription free, but it costs him little to do so, and he feels a philanthropic interest in giving weak men an opportunity to cure them-

A request to C. B. Wright, music dealer, Box No. 907, Marshall, Mich., for his free prescription will be promptly and privately complied with by return mail.
